Dr Paul Harvey - Intro

In a world that's changing faster than ever, it takes vision, insight, and courage to be a true change-maker.

Dr Paul Harvey is all of that and more. A scientist, journalist, podcaster, and storyteller, Paul has shared the stage with Dr Jane Goodall on the acclaimed Burundi to Gombe Podcast series, and is the bestselling author of The Plasticology Project, Today I Planted a Tree, and Why Dogs Are Called Dogs. His work has appeared on the BBC, ABC Australia, In the New York Times, The New Scientist, and Al Jazeera English, and he is a trusted voice on TV and radio across the globe.

Having inspired thousands of audiences worldwide, Paul combines curiosity, expertise, and a remarkable ability to connect with people. Today, he's here to share insights that will challenge, motivate, and empower you.

Please join me in welcoming, Dr Paul Harvey.